Our auction venue

The Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce was founded in 1754, by William Shipley, a drawing master from Northampton, who assembled a group of the most eminent artists, philosophers and scientists of the day and declared that the objectives of his Society were 'to embolden enterprise, to enlarge science, to refine art, to improve our manufactures and to extend our commerce. The Society moved to its present premises, which were purpose built by the Adam brothers as part of their Adelphi development, in 1774.

Our logo

A. H. Baldwin and Sons Ltd., founded in 1872, has had premises in The Adelphi since the 1920's and since 1970 at 11 Adelphi Terrace. The original terrace was demolished in 1936. The drawing is derived from part of Robert Adam's original plans for his Royal Terrace, and depicts the house at the West end of the Terrace at the corner of Robert Street.

A COMMONWEALTH FIND

This Commonwealth period find of 1,582 coins was discovered in the bed of the Thames near St Paul's in 1995 by a detectorist working at low tide. It was declared and subsequently judged by the Coroner to have been a loss rather than a deposit, consultation of a contemporary map of the river having shown the find spot to have been under water in 1660, the latest date represented.

In content, it is not unlike a Civil War hoard for, apart from three Tudor groats, it is made up of sixpences, shillings and halfcrowns. These denominations are thought to have been more in day to day use than silver crowns and gold coins and more convenient to handle than the smaller lower denominations. The earliest coins are of Edward VI and there are a few coins from the provincial mints of the Civil War which are worthy of special mention because of the rarity of certain of them and the diversity of the mints represented. The Commonwealth coins are, however, the most important overall because several, like the halfcrowns of 1657, are previously unrecorded and others, such as the halfcrowns of 1655 and 1659, are of extreme rarity. They also represent what is probably the largest find (377 coins) of the Commonwealth series to date. Hoards of the period are seldom discovered.

The face value amounted to £94 5s 0d (£94.25), a fairly substantial sum at the time and one which could have maintained a reasonable standard of living for four or five years. One can only wonder as to how this sum came to be lost. Undoubtedly contained in a bag or a box, it might have been in the course of transfer from one vessel to another during a transaction when a rope snapped precipitating it into the water from which recovery was impossible. It is also plausible that it was lost by someone fleeing in haste. The presence of a number of coins of 1660 and the absence of any coin of Charles II suggest the coins were lost prior to the Restoration (29th May 1660), when those who had signed the death warrant of Charles I would have realised they had in effect signed their own. Some fifteen regicides are known to have fled the country at this time.

The finder is retaining three of the coins as mementoes but they are included in the catalogue in order that the full content of the find be recorded.

It is proper to mention that, as a result of having been underwater for nearly three and a half centuries, the coins acquired a layer of silver chloride and had to be cleaned. Whilst this was undertaken with care, most of them have a dark and somewhat matt appearance but their surfaces are generally unpitted.

- *992 Al-Rashid b. al-Mahdi (AH 170-193/AD 786-809), AV Dinar, 4.23g, no mint name (Misr) 180H (Jafar (BMC 1, 249). Extremely fine. £150-200
- *993 Al-Rashid or al-Amir, AV Dinar, 4.02g, no mint name 193H, lacking both the letter ha and li'l-khalifa from the 4th line of the reverse legend (Bibliothèque Nationale 770). Extremely fine, extremely rare. £600-800

The absence of the isolated letter ha, which is usually found on dirhams of Madinat al-Salam and al-Muhammadiya, or the dedication Li'l-Khalifa, which is usually assigned to the mint of Misr, strongly suggests that this coin came from a third, as yet unidentified mint. Because this coin is virtually as struck and unclipped its low weight, 4.02g, would indicate that it may have been issued in a mint outside direct caliphal control. One possibility is that it may have come from a mint in the Yemen where lighter-weight coins were preferred to the standard-weight Abbasid issues.

- *994 Al-Rashid, Governor of Ifriqiya Muhammad al-'Akki, AR Dirham, 2.58g, Ifriqiya 180H. Very fine, scarce. £60-80
- *995 Al-Ma'mun b. al-Rashid (AH 196-218/AD 811-833), with heir 'Ali al-Rida, AR Dirham, 3.06g, Samaraqand 202H. Some staining, otherwise about extremely fine, scarce. £400-500

'Ali al-Rida, the son of Musa al-Kazim, the eighth in the line of the twelve Shi'a Imams, was appointed heir to the caliphate by al-Ma'mun in an attempt to heal the breach between Sunni and Shi'a. He is buried in the great shrine at Mashhad.

- *996 Al-Ma'mun b. al-Rashid, with heir 'Ali al-Rida, AR Dirham, 2.38g, al-Muhammadiya 202H (Miles Rayy 103). Good very fine, very rare. £600-800

See note on previous coin

- *997 Anonymous temp. al-Ma'mun, Æ Fals, 3.85g, al-Ramla 217H (as Ilisch Palestine 100). Some edge weakness, otherwise very fine, scarce. £200-300

- *998 Anonymous temp. al-Ma'mun, Æ Fals, 3.42g, Ghazza 217H (see Ilisch 179 and 180). Crude very fine, scarce. £200-300

Both this and the previous lot, as well as a Fals of al-Quds of the same date, were manufactured by casting the coins in moulds. It is possible that as the army of al-Ma'mun moved through Palestine coins were produced on the spot and at short notice employing this technique, which was rarely used by the Muslims of this period.

- *999 Al-Musta'in billah (AH 248-252/AD 862-866), AV Dinar, 4.27g, al-Basra 249H. Some edge weakness, otherwise very fine, rare. £400-500

- *1000 Al-Muhtadi billah (AH 255-256/AD 869-870), AV Dinar, 4.20g, Misr 255H, obv with fourth line of field (the name of the heir 'Abdallah) erased, rev with fourth line of field (the name of the Caliph al-Mu'tazz billah), erased (Miles RIC 150). Somewhat weakly struck on reverse, otherwise good very fine, rare £400-500

Miles considers that the names of al-Mu'tazz and his heir 'Abdallah were erased from the Misr coinage as an expedient upon the accession of the Caliph al-Muhtadi

- *1001 Al-Mu'tamid 'alâ-Allah (AH 256-279/AD 870-892), AV Dinar, 2.91g, San'a' 271H, obv al-muwaffaq billah, rev al-mu'tamid 'alâ-Allah/dhu'l-waziratayn. About extremely fine, rare. £300-400

- *1002 Al-Muktafi billah (AH 289-295/AD 902-908), AR Dirham, 3.01g, al-Qasr al-Fakhr 295H (BN 1096). Good very fine, rare. £150-200

Al-Qasr al-Fakhr was undoubtedly a pleasure palace built for al-Muktafi. He is only known to have struck coins there in 295H, the year of his death, and his younger half-brother, Ja'far al-Muqtadir continued to operate the mint briefly in the following year, 296H

- *1003 Al-Qahir billah (AH 320-322/AD 932-934), AR Dirham, 2.47g, al-Basra 323H, edge weakness, about fine, rare, together with Buwayhid, 'Adud al-dawla (AH 338-372/AD 949-983) with Rukn al-dawla as overlord, AR Dirham, 3.23g, Siraf 351H. About very fine. (2) £250-300

- *1004 Al-Nasir li-Din Allah (AH 575-622/AD 1180-1225), AV Dinar, 4.05g, Madinat al-Salam 608H. Edge weakness, otherwise virtually as struck. £200-250

- *1005 Al-Zahir bi-Amr Allah (AH 622-623/AD 1225-1226), AV Dinar, 5.22g, Madinat al-Salam 622H. Very fine, rare. £1000-1250

Spanish Umayyad

- *1006 Al-Hakam II al-Mustansir billah (AH 350-366/AD 961-976), AV Dinar, 3.97g, Madinat al-Zahra 357H (Miles Spain 250). Good very fine, scarce. £500-600

- *1007 Hisham II al-Mu'ayyad billah (1st reign AH 366-399/AD 976-1009), AV Dinar, 3.95g, al-Andalus 396H (Miles 332a). Extremely fine, rare. £800-1000

- *1009 Muluk al-Tawa'if first period, Aftasid of Badajoz al-Hajib Khalid, AV Dinar, 4.40g, al-Andalus (4)39H, obv muwaffiq, rev al-hajib/al-imam hisham/amir al-mu'minin/al-mu 'ayyad billah/khalid (not in the usual references). Good very fine, extremely rare. £2500-3000

This is only the second recorded example of a full-weight Aftasid Dinar. The first, struck by Khalid in the name of al-Imam 'Abdallah and dated 441H, was published in the Kazan catalogue, no.232.

Muluk al-Tawa'if second period, anti-Murabitid usurper

- *1010 Hamdin b. Muhammad b. Hamdin, AV Dinar, 3.97g, Qurtuba 540H (Vives 1905). Superb calligraphy, virtually as struck, extremely rare. £2000-2500

Idrisid style coinage

- *1012 Ibrahim I b. al-Aghlab (AH 184-197/AD 800-812), AR Dirham, 2.97g, Ifriqiya 186H (al-'Ush Aglabides 173). About extremely fine, scarce. £100-125

Al-Murabitid

- *1016 Abu Bakr b. 'Umar (AH 448-480/AD 1056-1087), AV Dinar, 4.16g, Sijilmasa 460H (date unrecorded by Hazard). About extremely fine, rare. £400-500

- *1017 Ishaq b. 'Ali b. Yusuf (AH 540-541/AD 1145-1147), AV Dinar, 4.26g, Ighranata 540H (H 438). Slightly double struck in margin, otherwise good very fine, very rare. £2000-2500

Al-Muwahhidid

- *1018 Abu-Yusuf Ya'qub b. Yusuf I (AH 580-595/AD 1184-1199), AV Dinar, 4.63g, no mint name (Fas) undated (H 502). A masterpiece of the die-sinker's art, uncirculated, a rare variety. £400-500

Fatimid

- *1020 Ma'add al-Mu'izz li-Din Allah (AH 341-365/AD 953-975), AV Dinar, al-Mansuriya 354H, very fine, a Sulayhid, ½-Dinar, Dhu Jibla, date illegible, extremely fine, and an unidentified ¼-Dinar, this only very good. (3) £100-125

- *1021 Al-Mu'izz, AV Dinar, 3.95g, no mint name (Sijilmasa) 357H. About extremely fine, rare. £250-300

- *1022 Al-Mu'izz, AV Dinar, 4.11g, no mint name (Sijilmasa) 361H. About extremely fine, rare. £250-300

- *1023 Al-Mu'izz, AV Dinar, 4.14g, Filastin 363H. Virtually extremely fine, rare. £500-600

During this period Palestine was being fought over by the Fatimids on one side and the Qarmatids on the other. This piece is inscribed in particularly beautiful Kufic calligraphy in a style altogether different from the style of the comparable Qarmatid Dinars, which is evidence that different groups of mint personnel were involved in their manufacture.

- *1024 Nizar al-'Aziz billah (AH 365-386/AD 976-996), AV Dinar, 4.04g, Filastin 375H. Good fine, rare. £400-500
- *1025 Ahmad al-Musta'li billah (AH 487-495/AD 1094-1101), AV Dinar, 4.00g, al-Iskandariya 490H. Very fine and rare. £300-400

- *1027 'Abd al-Majid al-Hafiz li-Din Allah (AH 526-544/AD 1131-1149), AV Dinar, 4.24g, Misr 527H. Brilliant uncirculated. £250-300
- *1028 Al-Hafiz, AV Dinar, 4.11g, al-Iskandariya 541H. Very fine. £250-300

Ayyubid

- *1029 Al-Nasir Salah al-Din Yusuf (AH 570-589/AD 1174-1193), Æ Fals, 5.88g, Dimashq (58)5H (Balog Ayyubids 145), marginal legends partly off flan, very fine, together with Ayyubids of Hama, al-Mansur Muhammad I (AH 587-617/AD 1191-1220) with al-'Aziz 'Uthman as overlord, Æ Fals, 3.20g, no mint name, undated c589-595H (Balog 831), slightly off-centre, very fine, rare. (2) £100-125

Bahri Mamluq

- *1030 Al-Nasir Shihab al-Din Ahmad (AH 742-743/AD 1342), AV Dinar 5.55g, al-Qahira 742H (Balog Mamluks 269). Perhaps ex-mount, extremely rare. £1000-1250

Ahmad was installed on 21st April 1342 (742H) but in a short reign of two months and twelve days managed either to execute or alienate those amirs who had helped him to the throne. Balog recorded only two known specimens of this coin.

The First Saudid State

- *1031 Anonymous temp. Sa'ud b. 'Abd al-'Aziz Al Sa'ud (in Makka AH 1218-1223/AD 1803-1808), Æ Mahmudi Fals, 21.11g, Makka 1219H (KM 1). Very fine, rare. £500-600

When the forces of Sa'ud bin 'Abd al-'Aziz occupied Makka the Holy City did not possess a mint, and was probably cut off from the regular sources of coinage from Ottoman Turkey and Egypt. At that time the Ottomans themselves struck no copper coinage, and the Saudis felt the need to introduce their own to make up for the lack of small change. They may have asked a local metalworker to strike the coins on the spot, but it is equally possible that they commissioned an Indian trader to arrange for their import from India, as the dumpy fabric is distinctly Indian in nature, and a number of these coins have been found there.

Hashimid

- *1032 Al-Husayn b. 'Ali (AH 1334-1341/AD 1916-1922), AV Hashimi Dinar, 7.25g, Makka al-Mukarrima 1334H, ry 8 (KM 31). Extremely fine. £150-200
- *1033 Al-Husayn b. 'Ali, AR 20-Hashimi Qurush, 23.94g, Makka al-Mukarrima 1334H, ry 8 (KM 30). About uncirculated. £100-125

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

- *1034 'Abd al-'Aziz b. 'Abd al-Rahman Al Sa'ud (AH 1319-1373/AD 1902-1953), AR Sa'udi Riyal, 24.07g, Makka al-Mukarrima 1348 (KM 12). Extremely fine. £100-125
- *1035 'Abd al-'Aziz, AV Guinea, 7.97g, Makka al-Mukarrama (but struck at the Paris mint), 1370H (KM 36). Uncirculated. £60-80

Sulayhid

- *1036 Al-Mukarram Ahmad b. 'Ali (AH 473-484/AD 1081-1091), AV Dinar, 2.36g, 'Adan 480H. Crude calligraphy, good very fine. £100-125

Rasulid

- *1037 Al-Mu'ayyad Da'ud (AH 696-721 / AD 1296-1321), AV Dinar, 4.92g including gold loop, 'Adan 719H. Very slightly double struck, otherwise good very fine, extremely rare. £1500-2000

The gold coins of the Rasulids are of the highest rarity and known only from this reign, the other recorded date being 718H. A superficial glance would identify the coin as a Marinid dinar from Morocco, but the legends are entirely in keeping with Rasulid titulature

State of Kuwait

- *1038 'Abdullah II b. Sabah Al Sabah (AH 1283-1310 / AD 1866-1892), Æ Baisa, 4.87g, al-Kuwait 1304H, obv name of ruler in tughra form, rev mint name, date (KM 1). Crude very fine, very rare. £1250-1500

This is the first modern coinage to have been struck by any of the AGCC (Arab Gulf Co-operation Council) States

Rum Saljuq

- *1039 Rukn al-Din Qilij Arslan IV (first reign AH 646-647 / AD 1247-1248), AR Dirham, 2.65g, Siwas 646H, obv representation of a Persian archer on a prancing horse to right (Artuk Istanbul 1129). One of the most beautiful of all Islamic figural coins, about extremely fine, scarce. £400-500

Ottoman

- *1040 Urkhan b. 'Uthman (AH 724-761 / AD 1324-1360), AR Aqcha, 0.96g, no mint name undated, rev in hexagram name of ruler written in an obscure fashion. A pretty little coin, about extremely fine. £100-120

The ornamental enclosures on this coin are similar to the coinage of the Ilkhans, and the obscure way in which the ruler's name is written suggests that Urkhan may have been attempting to avoid Ilkhan anger while still differentiating his own coinage from theirs.

- *1041 Murad III b. Salim II (AH 982-1003 / AD 1574-1595), AV Sultani, 3.46g, Saqiz - the island of Chios - 982H (Pere 277var, same obv but different rev dies). Good very fine, rare. £350-450

This coin is rare because it is a clear, well-struck example. The greater part of the coins from the mint of Saqiz appear to have been double struck

- *1059 A muling, 2.41g, of a Samanid/Simjurid obverse die for a dinar struck in Naysabur dated 377H, with the legend al-amir al-sa'id in the fourth line of the field, with a Great Saljuq reverse die in the name of Rukn al-Din Abu-Talib Tughrul Beg, possibly from the mint of either al-Basra or Isfahan (cf Lowick: The wandering die of Nisabur, ANS Museum Notes 28, 1983). Fine, previously unrecorded, rare. £500-600

Lowick was unable to provide a satisfactory explanation for the muling of a Samanid and Kakwayhid dinar, the obverse from Naysabur dated 375H, with a reverse of Muhammad bin Dushmanzar attributable to the mint of Isfahan c432H. One side of the second coin he published was struck from the same Samanid obverse die and the other from a Saljuq obverse die of al-Basra dated 449H. The mystery of these curious mismatches deepens with the appearance of this coin. There is no question that it was struck from genuine dies at about the same time that these two other pieces appeared, i.e. sometime in the 5th century H. Perhaps the discovery of additional pieces will shed more light on their probable origin.

Artuqs of Mardin

- *1061 Najm al-Din Alpi (AH 547-572/AD 1152-1176), Æ Dirham, 14.87g, no mint name undated, obv male head facing right (S and S type 27). Extremely fine, thus rare. £100-125
- *1062 Husam al-Din Yuluq Arslan (AH 580-597/AD 1184-1201), Æ Dirham, 14.63g, no mint name 589H (S and S type 35.2). An excellent example of this enigmatic pictorial type. £125-150

It is suggested in the reference that the arrangement of figures on this coin commemorates the death of al-Nasir Salah al-din Yusuf in the year 589H by depicting a particularly spectacular astrological phenomenon. The presence of the sun, moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn were all found in the sign of Virgo in 582. This was called the "Great Conjunction", and was perceived as foretelling a disastrous event. The astrologers may have connected the death of the great Saladin seven years later to the Great Conjunction, and placed its astrological representation on this remarkable copper coin.

This and the following two coins are examples of what must have been the "royal" copper coinage of the capital city, Isfahan. Iranian "city" copper was usually poorly struck on irregular flans, but it is obvious that the dies for these coins were both carefully manufactured and struck.

- *1066 Anonymous temp. Shah Sultan Husayn, Æ Falus, 17.35g, Isfahan 1119H, obv design as previous coin. Very fine, very rare. £100-125

This and the previous coin share a common obverse die. It is likely that this strongly religious currency was sold to pilgrims at the shrine of the Eighth Imam, 'Ali al-Rida, in Mashhad.

It is likely that this coin was produced for distribution at Nawruz, or for scattering at an imperial or noble wedding

On the death of Aurangzeb in 1707, there was a three-cornered fight for the Mughal throne between Azam Shah in Gujarat, Khandesh and Malwa, Kam Bakhsh in the Deccan and Mu'azzam Shah. Mu'azzam in due course gained the ascendancy and the Mughal throne, calling himself Shah Alam Bahadur. All coins in his pre-accession name are rare. They are known in both silver and gold from Azimabad, Murshidabad and Tatta (silver) and Azimabad and Akbarabad (gold). On the present coin he also calls himself the Second Alamgir, the first one being Aurangzeb.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The highest bidder for each lot shall be the buyer thereof. In the event of any dispute the auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the dispute and the disputed lot may well be re-offered for sale.
2. The auctioneer will have absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, or to withdraw any lots from the sale without giving any reason. The bidding shall be regulated at the absolute discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid or bids.
3. All lots are offered for sale subject to any reserve price that may be imposed by the seller.
4. All lots are subject to a "BUYER'S PREMIUM" of 11.75% inclusive of V.A.T., payable by all buyers.
5. Bidding commissions for anyone unable to attend the auction in person will be carried out by Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. without any additional charge. Bids must be in writing and be received at least 24 hours before the sale. "Buy" commissions will not be accepted. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. shall not be liable for errors or omissions in executing any bidding commissions. We cannot guarantee to execute written bids received less than 24 hours before the commencement of the sale. If two absentee bidders bid identical sums for the same lot, the first bid received shall take precedence.
6. The buyer of any lot shall, if requested, immediately notify his name and address to the auctioneer and if required,
 - (a) provide bank/or other credit references;
 - (b) pay the full purchase price, or a fractional deposit as may be determined at the discretion of the auctioneer.
7.
 - (a) Lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description and lack of authenticity. Neither Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. nor the vendor shall give any warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot or be liable for any fault or error of description or lack of genuineness or authenticity of any lot. All statements as to items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction or otherwise, are statements of opinion only and are not and shall not be taken to be statements or representations of fact. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. reserve the right in forming their opinion to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by them to be reliable.
 - (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any lot, other than a miscellaneous item not individually described in the catalogue, should be proved by the buyer to be not genuine or authentic, or to have been wrongly described in any material respect, the buyer may reject the same provided that he shall have given notice of his intention so to do and shall have returned the same to Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. within seven days from, and in the same condition as at, the date of sale. The onus of proving a lot to be not genuine or authentic or to have been so wrongly described shall lie with the buyer. Proof of the inability of any recognised expert or authority to express a definite opinion shall not discharge such onus. If the buyer shall discharge such onus, the auctioneers shall rescind the sale and repay to the buyer the price paid by him. Save as provided herein, Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. shall not under any circumstances whatsoever be liable for any costs, expenses or damages (whether direct, indirect, special or consequential) incurred by the buyer in respect of any lot, whether or not as a result of any fault, imperfection, error or description or lack of genuineness or authenticity, including but not limited to loss of any kind of profit whatsoever.
8. Save as provided in the preceding paragraph of these conditions buyers must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of their purchases at the time of delivery. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. cannot be held responsible for any discrepancy which might be discovered after the lots have been removed from either the auction room or the auctioneers' premises.
9. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. act solely as agents and shall not be responsible for any default by either the buyer or seller or for any action or claim which may arise in respect of any lot.
10. Each lot shall be held at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer. The lot or lots shall be removed by the buyer within seven working days after the date of the sale. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. reserve the right to charge storage and to resell by auction or privately, without notice to the buyer, any lots not so removed.
11. Any part of the purchase price left outstanding after the auction pursuant to Condition 5 shall be paid in full within thirty days of the date of the auction. Without prejudice to any other rights, Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. reserve the right to charge interest on any overdue payment at the rate of three per cent per month. Seven working days' notice must be allowed for clearance of personal cheques before delivery can be made unless prior arrangements have been made with Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. A 4% surcharge will be applied to credit card payments.
12. Buyers accepting commissions from third parties do so at their own risk and will remain responsible to Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. for full settlement according to these conditions.
13. By making a bid the buyer acknowledges his acceptance of these Conditions and shall be bound by them.
14. If any buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions, the lot or lots in respect of which the failure is made may at the discretion of Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. be put up again and resold. The damages recoverable from the defaulting buyer shall include, but not be limited to, the auctioneers' expenses and commission in respect of the resale and the amount (if any) by which the price obtained on the resale is exceeded by that obtained on the first sale.
15. A variation of these Conditions shall only be binding on Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. and the vendor if it is made in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of Baldwin's Auctions Ltd.
16. These Conditions shall take effect and be construed in accordance with the provisions of English law.
